On October 22nd, 1914, we sent you a notice of your election to Associate Membership in this Society. We have sent you several bills, but so far have not heard from you.

I am enclosing a bill for your dues, trusting you are still interested in this Society and its objects.

Our By-Laws state: "Any member in arrears for more than one year shall be dropped from the roll after due notification."

If I do not hear from you very soon, I shall take it for granted that you have changed your mind about becoming a member.
